

Club Savoy

Function package 2020

Dear valued patrons and members,

With some restrictions still in place unfortunately we are unable to offer some of our previous options such as smorgasboards or food platters. We have had to adapt the business to the current climate and reduce some of our food items aswell.

Below you will find a list of our current food and functions options. We will endeavour to meet all of your functions needs however please keep in mind that we must do this within our restrictions and capabilities.

- At this stage functions can only have a maximum of 50 guests.
- Upon arrival all guest must sign in at the front desk either with their drivers licence or via the guest book provided.
- All meals and drinks must be served to table by one of our staff members.
- Payment should either be made in advance, after the function via invoice or alternatively you can pay on the day via eftpost.
- We ask at this point to avoid paying individually on the day as we are trying to keep within the restraints of physical distancing.
